ST. JOHN VIANNEY HIGH SCHOOL

My dear Young Men:

As those of us who are in the upper brackets of age reflect on the past, we recall with great pleasure and much satisfaction the great influence that professors under whom we have been fortunate to sit, have made upon our thinking and our ideals.

I am confident that you young men who are being trained under the system of the thinking of the angelic Doctor, St. Thomas, are indeed most fortunate, and we are hopeful that his blessings will be bountiful upon you in the cultivation of your intellect and above all in the channels of sanctity.

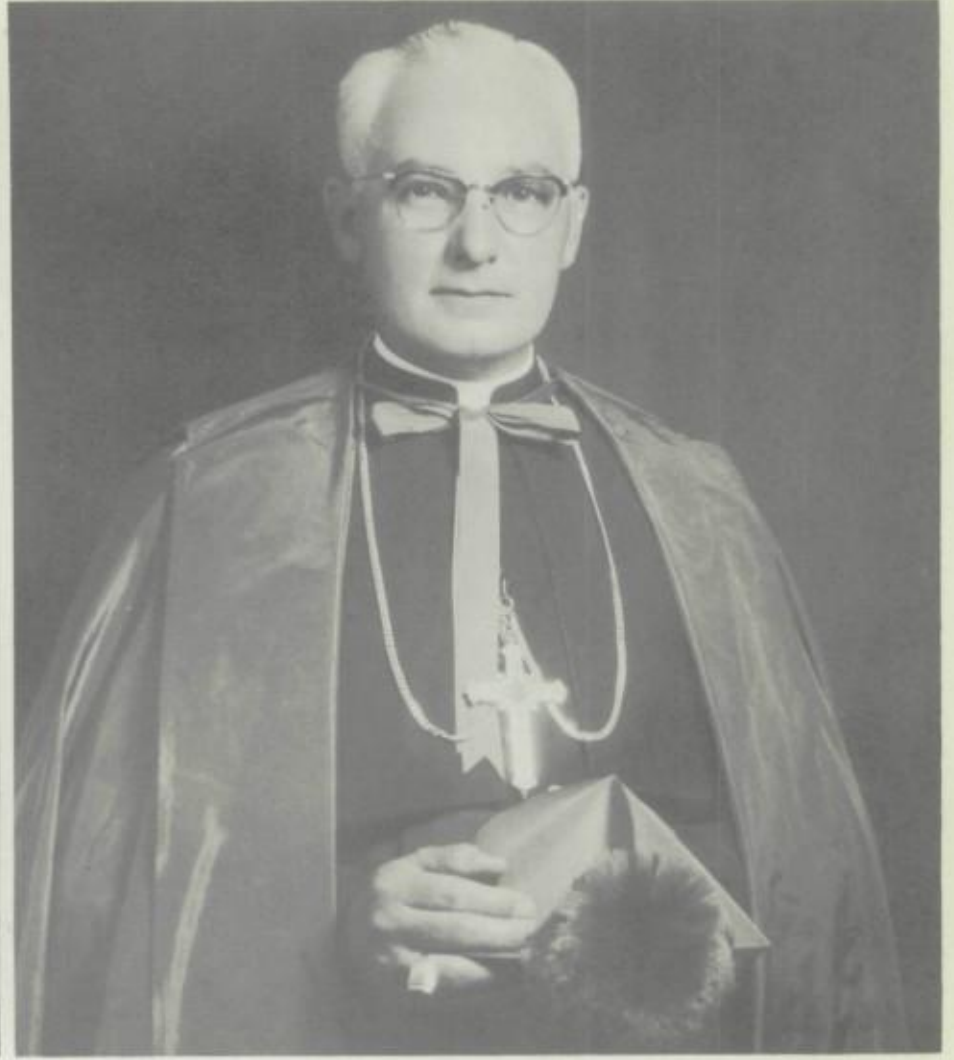

Asking Our Lady to ever watch over you, and with sincere best wishes, I am

Faithfully yours in Christ,

James McIntyre

Dedicated to the Memory of one of the Greatest Successors to the Holy See of Saint Peter.

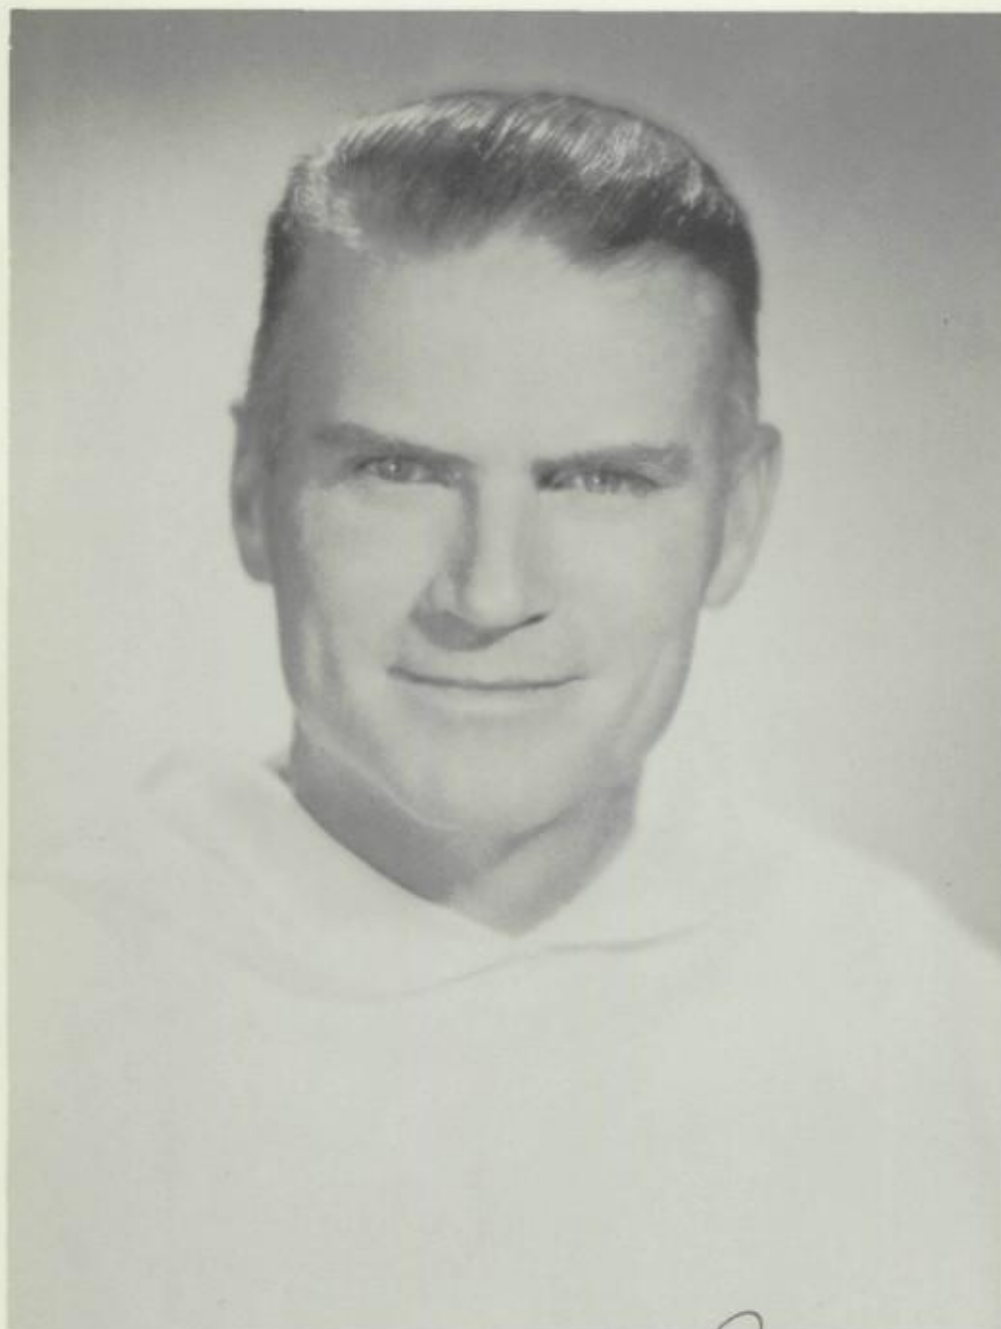

The President

My Dear Students,

Year by year I have watched the growth and development of St. John Vianney. It is with great pleasure that I congratulate the present graduating class, the largest in the school's short history. You have brought honor and recognition to your school. May you carry on in the high traditions with which you have been associated and which you have helped to establish. As pastor of Cathedral Chapel parish, which has been closely related to the school's beginnings and expansion, I pray that your lives may be enriched with God's choicest blessings. As President of St. John Vianney I pray that you will bring honor upon your Alma Mater and ever remain close in spirit and activity to the school's program.

Praying God's blessing upon you,
Right Reverend Msg. James E. Dolan

The Principal

W. Moore O.P.

To the Class of '59:

The usual manner of addressing seniors emphasizes the need of looking to the future. Foresight indeed is an important part of prudence, the virtue by which we plan our activities toward a worthwhile goal. We hope, however, that in planning for the future you have not learned to live only for the future. A man's life should be like a beautiful tapestry which is conceived and weaved piece by piece, with the idea of the whole fabric uppermost in the mind at all times. But each segment of this tapestry is in itself important. Man's goal is to glorify God and each daily experience should give testimony to the perfection and goodness of Being that is God. This glorification of God is the source of man's happiness. May you weave each new pattern in your daily life experience with joy and gladness in the doing and may the role that St. John Vianney has played in your life be an important means of learning the craft of living. Our prayers be with you that the lessons you have learned from the Carpenter's Son may instruct you how to live and work here on earth that you may live the fullness of life eternally.

God's blessing be upon you,
William Moore, O.P.

Fathers,

Club

On October 19, the Fathers Club sponsored its Third Annual Father's and Son's Communion Breakfast. Eight o'clock Mass was the first order of the occasion.

Mr. Donnelly spoke to the Fathers and Sons and congratulated them on their fine attendance and spirit.

A hearty breakfast was served in the cafeteria by the officers of the Father's Club.

Breakfast was highlighted by good food and a warm spirit, which prevails at all Vianney gatherings.

Vianney's First Annual Homecoming Game and Dance was presided over by Queen Pat Sellers, from Bishop Conaty High School. She was escorted by Roger Haro.

Homecoming '58

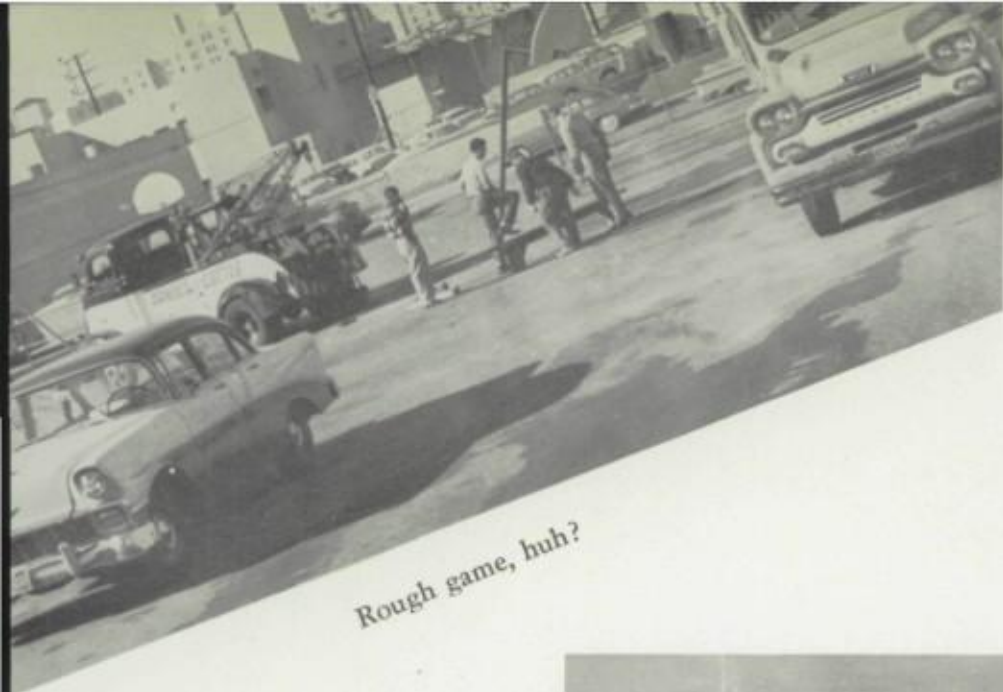

To the left of Homecoming Queen Pat, is Homecoming Princess Rose De Monti, and Princess Veronica Sindorf.

Dear Bob,
It doesn't seem possible that we've gone through college graduation together.
I wish you all the best in life.
Always,
